

Village of Riverwoods

Riverwoods, IL

Mayor Kristine Ford

Pledge Summary

The Village of Riverwoods is a small residential community located in Lake County, Illinois. The Village was born out of an idea by Edward Ryerson to offer residents the experience of living in a unique woodland setting. The woodlands in the Village remain a treasured community asset, requiring their preservation and stewardship and the community is known for its commitment to "living with nature." The Village strive to protect its local ecosystems and vital species, such as monarchs.
