City of Woodstock

Woodstock, IL

Mayor Michael Turner

Pledge Summary

Woodstock, Illinois, is home to approximately 25,000 residents and is located in the Northwest suburbs of Chicago. The city is home to 553 acres of parkland, including developed parks, natural areas, community gardens, and open spaces. Mayor Michael Turner is committed to saving the monarch butterfly and other pollinators by signing the Mayors' Monarch Pledge on February 17th, 2026. The City of Woodstock, alongside its residents and environmental ambassadors, vows to continue engaging with our community to encourage pollinator habitat rehabilitation. 2026 marks the fifth year of Woodstock's commitment.
