Bella Vista

Bella Vista, AR

Mayor John Flynn

Pledge Summary

Bella Vista is a city in Northwest Arkansas with a population of roughly 32,000. Originally created as a retirement and vacation resort town, the city consists of rolling hills, forests, that include over 115 miles of mountain bike trail, seven lakes, and seven golf courses. Residents are very active and care deeply about preservation of nature and its pollinators. Mayor Flynn is also committed to saving the monarch butterfly and natural forest area from an administration level. The City of Bella Vista looks forward to continuing to be a part of the Mayor's Monarch Pledge program and taking meaningful steps to building and preserving more pollinator habitat throughout the city.
