City of Wheat Ridge

City of Wheat Ridge, CO

Mayor Korey Stites

Pledge Summary

Wheat Ridge is a thriving small city just outside of Denver, Colorado, known for its strong sense of community, commitment to sustainability, and rich agricultural history. As part of our dedication to environmental stewardship, we recognize the vital role of pollinators in maintaining healthy ecosystems and supporting local biodiversity. Through initiatives like the Mayor's Monarch Pledge, Wheat Ridge is working to protect and enhance pollinator habitats by planting native species, educating residents, and promoting sustainable landscaping practices. By prioritizing these efforts, we aim to create a more resilient and vibrant environment for both people and wildlife.
