

Hudson NH

Hudson, NH

Hudson NH Selectman Brett Gagnon

Pledge Summary

The town of Hudson is on the southern boarder of New Hampshire. We have a balance of commercial business along with residential areas which are scattered throughout the rolling hillsides. We take great pride in our various town forests as well as our town gem; Benson's Park. Over the years, conservation efforts have increasingly become more popular with residents as a need to balance the growth of business expansion and as such this pledge aligns with our current and future goals. Hudson town leaders, which range from the Select Board, to the conservation commission and the sustainability committee all agree that protecting pollinators is of the utmost importance to our way of life, our regions natural beauty and the ability to keep our local farms alive.
