

City of East Chicago

East Chicago, IN

Mayor Anthony Copeland

Pledge Summary

The city of East Chicago is committed to providing habitat and spreading awareness for the Monarch butterfly. East Chicago has a large population of residents from Mexican descent for which the Monarch butterfly has deep cultural significance. East Chicago has two native pollinator gardens to support breeding Monarch populations, Cypra Garden in Washington Park and The Monarch Butterfly Garden in Kosciuszko Park. The city also has an annual Festival de la Monarca in the fall where it celebrates the Monarch butterfly's migration through East Chicago and its cultural connections to Mexico through music, food and dance.
