City of Angleton

Angleton, TX

Mayor John Wright

Pledge Summary

Angleton, the County Seat of Brazoria County, blends a strong community spirit with a small-town feel, all within the Houston metropolitan area. Covering 11.3 square miles, this diverse city is home to nearly 20,000 residents. Our Mayor, Council and Parks & Recreation Department has made a commitment to support monarch butterflies and other pollinators by signing the Mayor's Monarch Pledge. With this pledge, the city is dedicated to creating and maintaining pollinator habitats and engaging residents in efforts to protect and promote these vital species throughout the community.

Action Items Committed for 2025

Communications and Convening

- Issue a proclamation to raise awareness about the decline of the monarch butterfly and the species' need for habitat. This proclamation must incorporate a focus on monarch conservation.
- Launch or maintain a public communication effort to encourage residents to plant monarch gardens at their homes or in their neighborhoods. (If you have community members who speak a language other than English, we encourage you to also communicate in that language; Champion Pledges must communicate in that language.)
- Engage with gardening leaders and partners (e.g., Master Naturalists, Master Gardeners, Nature Centers, Native Plant Society Chapters , other long-standing and influential community leaders) to support monarch butterfly conservation.
- Create a community art project to enhance and promote monarch and pollinator conservation as well as cultural awareness and recognition.

Program and Demonstration Gardens

- Host or support a native seed or plant sale, giveaway or swap.
- Facilitate or support a milkweed seed collection and propagation effort.
- Add or maintain native milkweed and nectar-producing plants in gardens in the community.
- Display educational signage at monarch gardens and pollinator habitat.
