City of Oakland Park

OAKLAND PARK, FL

Mayor Steve Arnst

Pledge Summary

Oakland Park, Florida is a vibrant and diverse city in the heart of Broward County, known for its strong sense of community and commitment to environmental stewardship. With a mix of residential neighborhoods, parks, waterways, and local businesses, the City is focused on enhancing quality of life while supporting urban biodiversity. As part of this commitment, Oakland Park is taking meaningful steps to support monarch butterfly and pollinator conservation by integrating native and pollinator friendly landscaping into public spaces, parks, and streetscapes. These efforts include planting milkweed and nectar rich plants that provide essential habitat for monarchs throughout their life cycle.
