Lawrence Township

Lawrence Township, NJ

Mayor Patricia Hendricks Farmer

Pledge Summary

Lawrence Township, nestled in Mercer County Central New Jersey, has a rich history of development that balances growth with environmental stewardship. Over the years, the township has prioritized conservation efforts, ensuring that open spaces and wetlands remain protected. Several committees and organizations contribute to these efforts, including the Environmental Green Advisory Committee (EGAC), the Shade Tree Advisory Committee, and the Trails, Open Space, and Stewardship Committee. Additionally, the Anne Demarais Nature Center serves as a vital hub for environmental education and habitat preservation, offering trails, meadows, and a butterfly garden that support pollinators. Sustainable Lawrence also plays a key role in promoting ecological initiatives, advocating for native plant restoration and pollinator-friendly landscapes. Together, these groups help maintain Lawrence Township's commitment to sustainability, native pollinator plants, and environmental education, making it a monarch-friendly community.
