

Town of Irondequoit

Rochester, NY

Supervisor John Perticone

Pledge Summary

Irondequoit is a unique Town on the southern shore of Lake Ontario with a population of 50,000 residents. Bordered by water on three sides, Irondequoit surrounds Durand Eastman Park. Due to its geographical location, land stewardship and environmental conservation are at the forefront of the Town's priorities. Irondequoit's Supervisor, Town Board, staff and residents are committed to helping improve pollinator habitats on public land, while partnering with local organizations to educate the community to do the same.
