Town of Secaucus

Secaucus, NJ

Mayor Michael Gonnelli

Pledge Summary

Secaucus is a vibrant community located in the heart of the New Jersey Meadowlands. Known as the "Jewel of the Meadowlands," the town features expansive wetlands, riverfront parks, and dedicated green spaces that provide essential habitats for local wildlife. As a Sustainable Jersey Silver Certified community, Secaucus actively maintains pollinator-friendly gardens and encourages the planting of native milkweed to support monarch butterfly migration. Mayor Gonnelli is committed to protecting the monarch butterfly and other pollinators, having signed the Mayor's Monarch Pledge. He looks forward to involving residents in expanding pollinator habitats throughout the town.
