Naturalizing New Hope

New Hope, PA

Mayor Frank DeLuca

Pledge Summary

New Hope, Pennsylvania, a borough of roughly 2,600, sits along the Delaware River. Mayor Frank DeLuca has committed to saving the monarch butterfly and other pollinators both by signing the Mayors' Monarch Pledge and by personally qualifying his property as a National Wildlife Federation wildlife habitat, as part of the community's Naturalizing New Hope community certification. Mayor DeLuca looks forward to encouraging more and more residents to naturalize their properties, to increase the pollinator population in the borough.
